TO H. FOSTER DR.
Saddler and Harness Maker.

HORSES CAREFULLY MEASURED AND NEATLY FITTED. LONDON WHIPS.

Mr. HARRY HOUDINI.

Dear Sir,

Having made insane restraint for years for various asylums, I claim that it is impossible for you to escape from the full length padded cells suit.

I challenge you to allow me to construct a restraint out of canvas, beltings and leather straps, which will encase your body from your neck and over your feet, into which I will strap you, with my own committee, and assure you that you will not be able to escape.

You must make the trial in full view of the audience, to exclude you being assisted by concealed confederates.

I ask for twelve working hours to construct the straight jacket, so await your early reply.

HARRY FOSTER,

Saddler,

HULME.
